JAM DONUTS

Forget QFs and Cowboy shots, a delicious new tippie has arrived! Using Chambord, the French liqueur originally created for Marie Antoinette's hubby Louis XVI, you can create a shot that tastes exactly like a jam donut. It's très délicieux!

INGREDIENTS:

20ml Bailey's Irish Cream
10ml Chambord Liqueur
Sugar

HOW TO:

Rim a shot glass with sugar and pour in the Chambord Liqueur, allowing 2cm of room at the top. Pour the Baileys onto a spoon and let it drizzle onto the Chambord, creating a top layer. Try not to let the ingredients mix. Enjoy!

HAPPY HOUR!

BANDAGED BEAR DAY

March 30 is Bandaged Bear Day and the Children's Hospital at Westmead is hoping their furry friends will help raise more than $750,000 for sick kids. Dig deep this Friday and buy a clip-on Bandaged Bear, pen, hackey sack, notepad, pin or magnetic photo frame. All funds raised will help treat sick children needing a range of medical treatments. Visit www.bandagedbearday.com.au for more information.
